Inducted September 14, 2024

Beth Huston's remarkable athletic career at Port Washington High School stands as a testament to her exceptional talent and dedication. During her high school years, she made an unforgettable mark on the girls basketball program. Her achievements began with Honorable Mention All-Conference and All-County honors as a freshman. In 1998 we saw her rise to 1st Team All-Conference and All-County, sharing the title of Co-Player of the Year, and earning the roles of Team Captain and MVP. Her junior year continued this trajectory with 1st Team All-Conference and All-County selections, and she was named County Player of the Year, alongside being a 2nd Team All-Area pick by the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel. In 2000 her legacy was solidified with Pre-Season Street and Smith Magazine Honorable Mention All-American recognition, Conference Player of the Year, and WBCA 1st Team All-State honors. Beth also set records as the all-time leader in steals, assists and points. She is the Port Washington High School leading female scorer of all time, scoring 1,555 points. Beth also earned 11 varsity letters and became the first female basketball player from Port Washington High School to secure a four-year Division I scholarship. Beth continued her basketball career, playing 4 years in college as an Illinois State University Redbird from 2000 - 2004. Beth's athletic skill went beyond the basketball court where she also excelled in volleyball and softball. In volleyball Beth earned 1st Team All-Conference and Team MVP honors in both her junior and senior years of high school.

Beth's remarkable statistics and accomplishments, combined with her lasting influence on the girls basketball program, highlights her significant contributions and enduring legacy. Her exceptional talent is further showcased by the groundbreaking role she played in the school's sports history, with records that remain unbeaten to this day. Her outstanding performance, combined with her leadership and commitment makes her an inspiration to us all. Beth represents the pinnacle of athletic excellence and embodies the spirit and determination celebrated by Port Washington High School athletics.
